Dear Sir

Dear Sir

Yours to hand. We have more gold on hand, but if we did not describe last lot correct, doubt if we shall ever be able to do so.

We have a 1796 10 Eagle no stars, price $17.00. We cannot sell the Executive under $12.00. Shall not sell any more under $14.00 to any one.

We cannot use the St. Domingo unissued. Understood it was a set of five you offered.

Yours truly, Walter Scott

Dear Sir:—

In reply to your favor, I think we purchased two such coins along with some others quite a long time ago, more than a year, I should say. I do not recollect what I paid for them. They were sold soon after to H. P. Smith and we probably, in his collection. If I recollect correctly, they were purchased of a very gentlemanly young man, who stated he bought them in London when he was making a collection, but had got tired of it and sold most of his coins before.

This may help you to trace the thief. I do not recollect the gold price but do the decadrahm.

GUIDING STARS.

Dear Sir:-

In reply to your favor I got notice in under Coming Events. In regard to the basket of coins, they were sent to us today for 100c. I could not give that price, but was then to have the refusal which of course he will. Then we are to send them to you. As soon as he has seen

them we will forward
to you.

Yours truly
Wm. F. F. F.
